

LOCAL BREVITIES.

COUNTERFEIT Mexican dollars are in circulation.

Mr. J. J. Friedlander was serenaded at the Grand Hotel last evening.

The Chamber of Commerce building will be handsomely decorated during the May Musical Festival days.

Lucien Marc wrestled John Robshaw in Washington, Thursday night, and was thrown three times out of five.

Judge Yable adjourned his Court yesterday, upon receiving information of the death of a nephew in Ross County.

The Knights of St. James attended in a body the fair last evening at Mozart Hall, for the benefit of the Church of the Atonement.

Thomas Gowday, twenty-eight years old and slightly deranged, is missing since last Thursday from his home, No. 93 East Fourth street.

A. J. Jaynes, of Danville, Ind., was dismissed by Squire Gilligan yesterday of the charge of obtaining liquor by false pretenses.

The rite of confirmation was performed to-day upon one of the sons of Mr. Mike Lipman, and the rite of circumcision upon the other.

The Beaumont-Fletcher Circle held a pleasant literary and social entertainment at the residence of Mr. Calvin Peete, No. 203 Everett street, last evening.

Archbishop Purcell will at half-past 9 o'clock to-morrow morning dedicate the new Catholic church in Sedamsville. The Knights of St. Martin will attend.

The suit of M. Halstead & Co. against H. J. Sargent was tried before Squire Johnson. The decision was that the goods attached by M. Halstead & Co. should be returned.

The Three's went on a silent alarm last night to Daniels & Coombs' tailor shop, 162 West Fifth street, and put out an insignificant fire caused by a coal-oil lamp explosion.

The Trustees of the public schools of Franklin, Warren County, are investigating the question how a quantity of obscene literature became distributed among the scholars.

Henry Bridgewater, charged with burglarizing the residence of Nathan H. Allen, No. 342 West Fourth street, and taking $75 worth of jewelry, was held to answer this morning. Bail $1,000.

In the case of Hubert Henck, proprietor of Henck's Opera-house, who was arrested on the charge of performing common labor on Sunday, a decision not guilty was rendered by Judge Wilson yesterday afternoon.

The St. George Catholic Church, Corryville, has been presented by one of our citizens, who does not want his name mentioned, with a magnificent tower clock, manufactured by the Western Clock Company.

The Knights of St. Patrick went through a splendid military exercise last evening at Mozart Hall, in the presence of a large audience. The fair which has been in progress at that place during the week closes to-night.

Fail not to attend the Keppler Brothers' grand opening at Price's Hill, Monday next. The Cincinnati Orchestra Full Band have been engaged. Grand promenade concert afternoons and evenings. Let all attend. Admission is free.

George W. Brookwater, charged with manufacturing, and Wm. Stoker, charged with passing counterfeit money, were arraigned before Commissioner Hooper yesterday and bound over to the U. S. Grand Jury, Brookwater in the sum of $2,000, and Stoker in $1,000.

The ladies of St. John's M. E. Church beg to announce that on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, they will establish dining and lunch rooms at 178 Elm street. A good dinner will cost 25 cents, served from 12 to 3 o'clock; supper from 5 to 7 o'clock.

John Killenberry, a married man, who lives at No. 55 Riddle street, above Bank, was run over by a train on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at the foot of Liberty street, yesterday. Both of his legs were badly crushed, and the doctors called in were obliged to amputate one of them at the knee. He was taken to his home, where he died last evening. Squire Rowekamp, owing to the severe illness of Coroner Stich, who is confined to his bed, will hold an inquest at 4 o'clock this evening.

The promenade concert for the benefit of the Bettis-street Hospital is progressing finely, and large crowds are in attendance nightly. The tables are in charge of the following ladies: St. Mary's, Mrs. Niehaus; St. Anthony's, Mrs. Schuerman; St. Paul's, Mrs. Gervé; St. Joseph's, Mrs. Luedkehaus; St. Philomena's, Mrs. Kathan; St. Augustin's, Mrs. Hagan; Holy Trinity's, Mrs. Luedmerding; St. Francis's, Mrs. Heile. The refreshment table is in charge of Misses Luedmerding, Simon and Korte, Mrs. Bonte and Mrs. Niehaus.

The Ladies' Art Loan Exhibition will be open to the public only three weeks longer, and the opportunity of seeing one of the finest collections of rare, costly and beautiful articles, of every description, that has ever been gathered together, will soon be lost. The anticipations of the most sanguine have been met, and as the exhibition becomes more widely known the interest and number of visitors increases rapidly. The ladies may well feel proud of the success of their undertaking.

The Last Chance.

Store crowded from morning till night. Forty salesmen not enough to wait on immense crowds at the Great Bankrupt Sale of Clothing, 171 West Fourth street, between Elm and Plum streets, Cincinnati. Only a few left—men's cloth, pants, $1.19, $1.29, $1.39; men's fine coats, $2.50, worth $3.50; men's fine cassimere suits, $2.50, worth $3.50; alpaca coats, white vests, flannel suits at a terrible sacrifice. Remember the time is nearly up when this great sale must positively close.

GRAND OPENING OF SUMMER CLOTHING.

MABLEY'S GRAND SUMMER OPENING!

ON

TUESDAY, MAY 14th, 1878.

We will Display at our MAMMOTH CLOTHING HOUSE, Nos. 66 and 68 W. Fifth Street, Opposite Fountain, an entire New Stock of

SUMMER CLOTHING,

FOR

MEN, YOUTHS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

On our Opening Day we will show a stock of over Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars' worth of Men's and Boys' Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods, being the largest stock to select from in

ANY ONE CLOTHING HOUSE IN AMERICA,

And will comprise the most choice patterns of ENGLISH, FRENCH, GERMAN and AMERICAN GOODS. We have also conformed to the demand of the times and manufactured a large stock of the cheapest grades of serviceable Clothing, and while we propose to offer these at a very low price, we claim that our customers will find our goods to be much superior in fit and manufacture to the cheap Clothing sold in this city. We have taken advantage of the demoralized state of the Eastern market and purchased largely for cash from the leading cloth manufacturers, at a great reduction from the prices they asked early in the season, and we will be able to sell a great many lines of goods for less than you can buy the cloth and trimmings, leaving the price of making out of the question. It will pay parties living at a distance from the city to come and purchase their Clothing from us, they will more than save their expenses to and from the city. Besides they will have the advantage of our immense stock to select from. Below we give a price list of a few of the many styles we have in stock:
